Terms And Condition

By accessing and using the NPT-Onboard platform, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. You may only access the Platform with a valid invitation from NPT's HR department. Unauthorized access is strictly prohibited.

You represent that all information provided is accurate, complete, and truthful. By using the Platform, you consent to the collection, processing, and storage of your personal information (including government IDs, bank details, employment history, and educational qualifications) for employment and onboarding purposes, and background verification checks. Providing false or fraudulent information may result in immediate termination of the onboarding process and legal consequences.

NPT employs industry-standard security measures including encryption of sensitive data. Your information will be accessed only by authorized NPT personnel and may be shared with service providers under confidentiality agreements or as required by law. NPT will not sell or rent your information to third parties. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your access credentials and ensuring all uploaded documents are legitimate and authentic.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, NPT shall not be liable for indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising from your use of the Platform. You agree to indemnify NPT from any claims arising from your breach of these Terms. NPT reserves the right to terminate your access at any time for violation of these Terms. By submitting information, you acknowledge that your digital signature is legally binding.
